

Product Overview

A ruler indicator is common standard equipment for surface water level measurements. Ruler indicators are visual indicators to determine the surface water level and are implemented in rivers, streams, channels, reservoirs and dams.

Features

- Time-proven basic visual reference of water level measurement
- Easy to see and read
- Available in many standard sizes
- Custom scales, sizes and colours available
- Pre-numbered or 'build your own' options
- Rugged and durable weather resistant design

Application

- Rivers, Lakes, Streams, Dams and Reservoirs
- Wastewater treatment plants
- Flumes and weirs
- Visual flow easurement
- Tanks

Material

- Aluminium, Arcylic & others material to be confirm by sales team

Size

- Custom Make

Visual Indication of Surface Water Level for Rivers, Streams, Channels, Reservoirs, and Weirs

Distributor By